Greetings from the Mayor of Ajax

On behalf of all Members of Council and the Town of Ajax, I wish to welcome all the attendees, volunteers, and organizers of the Annual World Religion Day Celebration to Durham Region. Your commitment and dedication to creating meaningful opportunities for the community to celebrate unity in diversity is admirable.

World Religion Day celebrates the wonderful diversity of cultures that we have here in Durham. This day assists us all by bringing together our communities to explore the unique and common areas of our religions, allowing us to foster a greater understanding of one another while creating the opportunity for us to forge new friendships throughout our communities.

The Town of Ajax takes great pride in our diversity and multicultural heritage and as Mayor of the Town of Ajax I send my very best wishes for another successful event this year!

Sincerely,
